

Quarterly Report

This document summarizes performance for the quarter. Revenue grew steadily across all regions, with the strongest gains in the northeast territory.

Operating costs remained flat year over year, driven by efficiency improvements in the supply chain and a reduction in overtime hours across manufacturing sites.

Looking ahead, the team expects continued growth next quarter, contingent on stable input costs and no material disruption to logistics partners.